TRENTON MADE A BIG MISTAKE

Ate but Would Not Pay and Then Challenged an Officer to Fight.

Thomas Trenton made a mistake and admitted as much to Judge Wilcox yesterday. He was charged with profanity. On Tuesday evening he went into a coffee shop and ordered and ate. When asked to pay for his supper he refused. Officer Maitland was in the place at the time eating, but was not attired in his regimentals. When he heard Trenton refuse to pay his bill he endeavored to persuade him to do the right thing and so avoid trouble.

"You're a bloomin' soldier," remarked defendant, "and no soldier can make me pay. Come outside and let me whip you." He also said other unprintable things.

Trenton then made a pass at Maitland and got knocked down for his pains. A sympathizing and interfering companion met with a similar experience. Maitland afterwards arrested Trenton and haled him to the police station.

Judge Wilcox fined the victim of the mistake $10 and costs.

J. C. Suarez was fined $25 and costs for heedless driving. The defendant, who is a driver for Henry Waterhouse, ran over a Japanese on Bethel street. He stated that he yelled at the man, who refused to get out of the way. Complainant said defendant was in a hurry to get home because his mistress was waiting for the carriage; on this account he drove recklessly.

Judge Wilcox, in fining the man, said that anyone had a right on the streets after the fire department and the United States mail.

Keoloha, charged with having committed assault and battery on his wife, was fined $25 and costs. Last Sunday night the woman called for help and two policemen found defendant beating her. This was going on behind a locked door, which had to be broken in. Yesterday the complainant testified that her husband had not beaten her.

Judge Wilcox said that he would sign a warrant for the arrest of the woman on a charge of perjury if such were made out.

Other cases disposed of were:

Alex. Douglass, assault with weapon, September 7; Chida Manzabaro, accessory to murder, September 5; Mokuhia, Kaieo, William Steven, Patrick Shannon, Charles Long, drunkenness, $2 and costs; James Monkhouse, Carpenter, drunkenness, bail forfeited; Shorta, vagrancy, September 5; Iokewe Kaholokai, assault and battery on Eliza Kaholokai, one month; Mirawa, Michuka, O, Nakamura, assault and battery on Yamada, September 5; Henry Merseberg, leaving horse untied, $5 and costs.

Yesterday's arrests included: George Wade, attempt to murder; James Choyles, Kumakahu, Nelson, Wada, drunkenness; Furudo Sitaro, Shingo Ichiro, Hamada, Takamatu, Takata, Misusaki, Tusuki, assault and battery on Tokomoto; Semory Algeria, Jones Bowtistur Fruvery, Kesuro Pamarro, Pedro Moralle, vagrancy.

HOGAN TO RETURN.

Another Visit from the Coon Leader Programmed.

Ernest Hogan, the unbleached American, who once pleased Orpheum audiences, has canceled his contract with the Orpheum vaudeville circuit and will sail from San Francisco on the 12th of this month, under an eight-weeks contract to appear at the Orpheum, dating from the day of sailing.

A company of twenty-three coons who have been gathered together by J. C. Cohen of this city, and who include a brass band, will accompany the colored star.

The engagement will be over by the opening of the Neil Company, and Manager Cohen claims that he has no desire to clash with the Neil engagement in any shape or form.

Several of the colored artists have appeared before in Honolulu, and all are claimed to be experienced actors.
